Around easter there's a lot going on in Bonn and region.

BONN/REGION. There is a lot going on over Easter – you can take part in an egg and spoon race in Friedrichstrasse, hunt for eggs at the Drachenfels, visit the Ehrenbreitstein fortress in Koblenz for a light show and take part in various hands-on Easter activities, or if you don't mind spiders, check out the exhibition with live spiders and scorpions from all over world at the Alexander König museum.

BONN

International Bonn Egg Race Championships: The shops on Friedrichstraße are organising an egg race from 2-4pm. The route is 30m long. Each participant must carry an egg on a spoon over the finish line without dropping it. But luckily the eggs are made of plastic. All those taking part will receive a certificate and a real Easter egg.

Open top bus tour: The GA open top bus offers a two-hour tour, leaving at 2pm on Easter Saturday and Easter Sunday and at 11am on Good Friday and Easter Monday. Meet at Bonn Information on the corner of Windeckstraße 1/ Münsterplatz. Adults 16 Euro; Family ticket 32 Euro. Bookings can also be made by calling the hotline 02 28/77 50 00 or online at this website!
